Another batch of random highlights from Eurobike, this time including a first look at BMC's new aero road bike, a more affordable Wahoo smart trainer and that £200 fan, Zwift's New York expansion, new power meters from PowerTap, a lovely torque wrench from Effetto Mariposa, helmets with integrated lights and a two-spoke carbon wheel concept from FFWD. Plus lots more so start scrolling for all the shiny new things.

Effetto Mariposa

The price hasn't been confirmed yet but it'll cost about €100.

Effetto Mariposa has added this new Giustaforza 1-8 Nm torque wrench to its 2019 range. It's designed to be smaller and more portable than the Giustaforza 2-16 Nm and comes in a very smart pouch to keep it protected and ideal for throwing in your kit bag.
